Advisory Neighborhood Commission 4B (the Commission) takes note of the following:

- Ms. Lindsay Damon and Mr. Geoffrey Bromaghim, the owners of 220 Aspen Street NW, applied to the Historic Preservation Review Board to construct an addition to their house which is located in a historic district
- The owners' architect has revised the design several times to better accommodate the historic designation of the district
- The owners have received a favorable staff report where the Historic Preservation Office staff finds the concept to be compatible with the historic district
- The owners have stated that they have lived in the home for several years, plan to continue to live there, and this addition concept accommodates a growing family
